

Here are a few examples of supplies you may purchase. You can get them at almost any craft store. If you go to Michael's, look for a coupon!

Canvas (suggested 16" x 20")

Easel

Paint – colors may vary; however, most are primary standard colors (white, black, red, blue, green, yellow)

Brushes (suggested to purchase them as a bundle, as each project could use different brushes)

Hair dryer (optional)

Paper plates

Paper towels

Water glass (disposable)

Plastic tablecloth

Apron

Chalk (colored and white)

Supplies for Gnome Painting

Paint colors may vary based on your taste or available supplies; for example, a shade of green if you would like the Gnome to be for St. Patrick's Day.

White (you will need more white for mixing, so either 2 bottles or one large bottle)

Black

Pink

Dark Blue

Primary Yellow

Red

Green

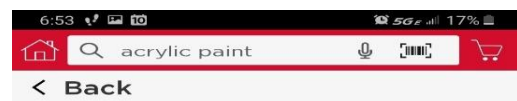

Brush needed for this project—wide brush to paint all of the canvas; thin point for outlines

Pallet knife to mix colors, and a few medium-to-basic brushes
